

learn about DIWALI

Watch the National Geographic video on Diwali: Festival of Lights. Fill in the sentences with the missing words!

1. Diwali is celebrated in India.
2. To participate in the celebration of Diwali, a visitor would have to travel there in late Autumn.
3. Diwali is also known as the festival of lights.
4. Christmas is the most similar celebration to Diwali.
5. Diwali commemorates the victory of the forces of light over the forces of darkness.
6. To experience Diwali, a visitor should get up before dawn and head to the flower markets.
7. The colourful shape on the ground is a symbol of welcome.
8. It's customary for families to go to the temple together on this day.
9. During Diwali people often buy good clothes and make good food.
10. Cities put on spectacular public displays of fireworks.

Video link:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ap0XD2XckLo>

learn about DIWALI

Watch the National Geographic video on Diwali: Festival of Lights. Fill in the sentences with the missing words!

1. Diwali is celebrated in _____.
2. To participate in the celebration of Diwali, a visitor would have to travel there in late _____.
3. Diwali is also known as the festival of _____.
4. _____ is the most similar celebration to Diwali.
5. Diwali commemorates the victory of the forces of _____ over the forces of _____.
6. To experience Diwali, a visitor should get up before dawn and head to the _____ markets.
7. The colourful shape on the ground is a symbol of _____.
8. It's customary for families to go to the _____ together on this day.
9. During Diwali people often buy good _____ and make good _____.
10. Cities put on spectacular public displays of _____.

