

Read about Tết Nguyên Đán, Vietnamese New Year! How do you celebrate the new year?

Tết (Tết Nguyên Đán) is the Vietnamese New Year, the most important festival in Vietnam. Vietnam is a country in Asia. Tết is celebrated in January or February, depending on the moon, or the lunar calendar. It is celebrated for three days but people start to prepare before that. They clean their homes, display family photographs and decorate their houses with flowers and plants. The first day of Tết is celebrated with family. Children receive red envelopes with money. The second day of Tết is to visit friends and the third day is to honour teachers and educators. Finally, there is a big parade and lots of delicious food!

Write the ordinal numbers in order.
What is each person's position?

first third fourth sixth eighth fifth ninth seventh second

first

